Celebrating St. Patrick's Day

On March 17th we gathered in the dining room to listen to beautiful Irish tunes played by Valerie Blessley and Jennifer Pratt-Walter from Celtic Muse.

The Wednesday following St. Patrick's Day, we gathered in the dining room for a musical concert performed by one of our residents, Dee Espinoza. We listened to lovely renditions of all the old Irish medleys. She was joined by resident Karley Patching playing her ukulele.

Dee also told Irish jokes and stories. Here is one of her funnies: "What do you call an Irish spider? Paddy long legs!"

One of my favorite songs was "Molly Malone". We all sang the chorus..."cockles, and mussels, alive, alive oh!"
